COURSE FACULTY

Lanny Butler, MS, OTR is founder and President of IATB Dementia Care LLC, a private consulting group on Dementia Possible Care giving. He lectures throughout the United States on Dementia Possible Care and is the primary author of the book My Past is Now my Future: A Practical Guide to Dementia Possible Care. Mr. Butler has provided education and training in Dementia Possible Care to over 20,000 clinicians and caregivers.

Throughout his 38 year clinical career as an Occupational Therapist, Mr. Butler has provided occupational therapy interventions in multiple clinical settings ranging from a Maximum Security Prison to Neonatal Intensive Care Units. He has served clinical populations whose ages span from neonates to the elderly. Mr. Butler has primarily treated the geriatric population for the past 25 years in the outpatient, acute care, and long term care setting. He continues to provide ongoing staff training, clinical competencies and program development in multiple aspects of geriatric care, and has incorporated an interdisciplinary effort among those he serves. The focus of his work has been the enhancement of clinical excellence for those who serve the geriatric population.

Mr. Butler has served on numerous boards within his profession both on state and national levels. He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Occupational Therapy from the University of North Dakota and an Advanced Master of Science Degree in Occupational Therapy from the University of Puget Sound.
